

The Center for BioEnergy Sustainability (CBES) at Oak Ridge National Laboratory (ORNL) is pleased to announce that we are holding our next Forum on October 20th, 2011 in the Ocoee Room (room 189) in Building 1505 at 3:30.

The forum will be followed by a casual gathering at Virginia Dale's home where light refreshments will be enjoyed as the discussions continue.

The topic for the October CBES Forum is: "The Effect of Ethanol on Fuel Price Behavior and the Viability of Cellulosic Biofuels" presented by Jacob LaRiviere.

Jacob LaRiviere is an Assistant Professor of Economics at the University of Tennessee. LaRiviere's research focuses on firm behavior in natural resource industries and government policy toward energy and the environment. Of particular interest is firm response to changes in resource, environmental and energy regulation. LaRiviere completed his PhD in economics from the University of California, San Diego in 2010 and is a Research Fellow for Energy and the Environment at the Howard Baker Jr. Center for Public Policy.

Please mark your calendar for every third Thursday for 2011 so that you can join in the collaboration and camaraderie that is being built by your participation in the CBES forums.
